Request for Applications

KL2 Career Development Awards for Multidisciplinary Clinical Research

Application Deadline: September 15th, 2014
Start Date: July 1st, 2015

Applications and additional information may be found at: http://crtc.wustl.edu

Program Benefits:

• 75% of the Scholar’s Salary (up to $75,000 per year; for 2-3 years)
• $25,000 per year in Research Funds
• Tuition for Graduate-Level Coursework including a Master of Science in Clinical Investigation (MSCI), or a Master Of Population Health Sciences (MPHS)
• Mentored Training in Multidisciplinary Clinical and Translational Research for postdoctoral and junior faculty investigators

Eligibility for Program Applicants:

• Doctoral degree such as MD, PhD, PharmD, DrPH, DO, DDS, DSN, DPT or OTD
• Applicants must be conducting or planning to conduct multidisciplinary clinical research
• US citizen, non-citizen national, or permanent resident
• Ability to devote 75% professional effort (50% for surgical specialties) for a minimum of two years
• Support of 2 mentors approved by the program
• Commitment to an academic career in research
• Not currently or previously a PI on a mentored career development grant for more than 5 years (e.g., K-series) or who have not had substantial independent funding (e.g., R01, P01, P50 or other equivalent research grant)

Rachel Lamp, Program Coordinator, rlamp@dom.wustl.edu
Rachel Driskell, Program Manager, rdriskel@dom.wustl.edu
Jane Garbutt, MBChB, Program Co-Director, jgarbutt@dom.wustl.edu
Victoria J. Fraser, MD, Program Director, vfraser@dom.wustl.edu